DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

- 1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:
 - (a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.
- 2. Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Muller et al. (US 4,597,752) in view of Martin et al. (US 5,062,597).

Muller et al. disclose a continuous folding device comprising arm 102 which guides paper 4 in an accordion fashion upon a platform; see figure 1. Arm 102 further comprises telescopic members 26 (main arm body) and 27 (sub arm body) for varying the length of the guiding member. Arm 102 is controlled with motor 18.

Muller et al. does not directly disclose horizontal or swinging of arm 102, however Martin et al. teach folding by swing arm 11. Furthermore, the table of Muller et al. does not move vertically nor has a detection mechanism for controlling vertical movement. However Martin et al. describe a vertically controlled table 47; see figure 1. Sensors 40 detect proper positioning of the stacked paper and control raising and lowering of the table according to preset values; see column 5, lines 55-68.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to include the teachings of Martin et al. in the invention of Muller et al. in order to manipulate the folds and the stacks.

Conclusion

3. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
